

How to attend the class via MS Teams

1. You will receive the email from MS Teams that you have been added to the class. Click “Open Microsoft Teams”

2. There will show the window as below. If you do not have an account for MS Teams before, you have to create an account (with email address that you have received email form MS Teams).

3. Create your account following the steps. Please do not to select that you are the KMUTT guest.

When you finish to create the account, you can login to see the window as below. It shows the classes that you have registered. You can click to attend the class following the timetable and course outline.

If you cannot access the class or need to add/change your email to log in/sign in, please contact K. Vilertwat at email address: sre190@gmail.com.
